(AP) — Governor authorized a strike some time ago. But he said he wanted to report back to the men involved and check again with them on their wishes.

Negotiations Halted

Negotiations which extended for 24 hours broke off this morning. Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said that further talks appeared useless and the union was free to strike.

Goldberg left immediately to report to President Kennedy. He said the carriers had accepted but the union had rejected a last-minute proposal by the President to submit the contract dispute to voluntary arbitration.

The labor secretary had sat in on the all-night session and joined in a final get-together after breakfast.

The deadlock developed after two years of negotiations between the Flight Engineers International Association and the three airlines over a wide gamut of differences — the main one being the status of flight engineers aboard jet aircraft when the airlines shift, as they say they must, from four-man to three-man crews.

Publishes Statement
Goldberg made public a statement given last Saturday to both sides urging arbitration of all issues. Kennedy urged acceptance of his proposal both in the interest

2 U. S. Officers Penalized for Beating Korean

CAMP HOWZE, Korea (AP) — Two U.S. Army officers were reprimanded, fined $600 and suspended from command functions for six months today for beating a Korean.

The incident had touched off a storm of South Korean demands for jurisdiction over American servicemen who commit offenses while off duty.

A nine-member court martial imposed the sentences on 1st Lts. David W. Swanson, 25, of Galesburg, Ill., and Thomas M. Wilde, 25, of Woodsworth, Ill.

The two pleaded guilty of unlawful detention, assault and battery and giving false testimony under oath. The military court deliberated on the sentence for more than an hour. The fines are to be paid in $100 monthly installments. The sentences are subject to review by higher military authorities.

Swanson, a company commander, and Wilde, his executive officer, were accused of roping and beating Lee Il-yong, 30, after the Korean was caught inside their area May 29.

Moving by the Appleton Post-Crescent's editorial call to pay proper respect to the state flag, the Menasha Historical Society donated a state emblem to the Elisha D. Smith Public Library in Menasha.

Making the presentation are, from the left, Harold Bachmann, society founder, and Ferd Jung, library board president; Mrs. Dorothy Weber, head librarian, and Mrs. John Wilterding, society president.

$48.5 Billion Defense Bill Given Unanimous Approval

Senate Sends Measure to House; Conference to Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unanimous Senate approval of a massive $48.5 billion defense bill moved the record peacetime appropriation back to the House to-day.

There, leaders were expected to send the bulky measure to the usual compromise session of a Senate-House Conference Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The three convicts who fled Alcatraz island prison in San Francisco Bay may have had outside help, it was reported today.

The San Francisco Examiner said it has learned from a reliable source that the FBI is working on the theory the three men made it over the cold, swirling waters to the mainland and is checking on recent visitors to the prison.

A widening search by government agents is strengthening speculation the three — John Anglin, 32, his brother, Clarence, 31, and Frank Morris, 35, may have engineered the first successful escape from the 28-year-old maximum security institution.

The sergeant is the fourth U.S. serviceman killed in combat since the United States increased its aid to President Ngo Dinh Diem's forces last December.

A large Vietnamese force airlifted by 30 U.S. helicopters swept a Red-infiltrated area 40 miles north of Saigon today.

Names of all three Americans were withheld until next of kin were notified.

The action, details of which were not disclosed, occurred in central Viet Nam's thick forests, where U.S. Army special forces are training local Vietnamese units to defend their villages against Viet Cong guerrillas who infest the area.

The letter to Gov. Nelson said "the panel of judges in this case unanimously and respectfully requests that within ten days of the date of this letter you issue a call to the state Legislature of Wisconsin to convene for the purpose of enacting a fair and constitutional apportionment law pursuant to the 1960 census."

Announces Decision After 3 Federal Judges Make Request for Quick Action

MADISON (AP) — Gov. Gaylord Nelson said today he will call the Legislature into special session — as requested by a panel of three federal judges — to reapportion Wisconsin's political districts.

The Democratic chief executive said he would issue the call within 10 days in compliance with the federal jurists' suggestion.

"I requested the 1961 Legislature to reapportion in accordance with the mandate of the Constitution," Nelson said. "The Legislature failed to act at that time and I will now call a special session in compliance with the suggestions of the panel of federal judges."

The governor said he would set the date of the special session shortly.

The panel's request, made in Milwaukee, came to the governor as he was conducting a meeting of the State Building Commission. He said he would have an expanded comment later in the day.

Duffy's Statement

Judge F. Ryan Duffy of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals, one of the three judges on the panel, told newsmen that if the suggestion made by the panel is carried out, "it will end this litigation. If it isn't we will proceed."

Other members of the panel are District Judges Patrick T. Stone of Wausau and Kenneth P. Grubb of Milwaukee.

The federal judges set no time limit within which the Legislature must reapportion or have the court undertake it. The intention of the action was to achieve redistricting before the 1962 fall election.

Presumably, the lawmakers could delay nomination papers filing dates to enable them the reapportion in time for the September primary.

The letter to the chief executive said that if the Legislature failed to act the judges would name a special master to prepare a plan of reapportionment for submission to the jurists. The judges have already agreed upon the person who would be selected but have not disclosed his identity.

Judge Duffy described him as "outstanding in the state, one of the leaders of the bar."

Won't Dismiss Suit

The panel said it had denied motions by counsel for Secretary of State Robert Zimmerman asking for dismissal of the suit by Atty. Gen. John W. Reynolds to force reapportionment before the 1962 elections.

The letter to Gov. Nelson said "the panel of judges in this case unanimously and respectfully requests that within ten days of the date of this letter you issue a call to the state Legislature of Wisconsin to convene for the purpose of enacting a fair and constitutional apportionment law pursuant to the 1960 census."

Wall Street Wizard Gilbert Flees to Brazil

Executive Admits Taking $2 Million Was Unauthorized

NEW YORK (AP) — Wall Street wizard Edward M. Gilbert, who has admitted unauthorized withdrawals of almost $2 million from the company he headed, has flown to extradition — proof Brazil.

Gilbert stepped off a Varig Airlines jet in Wednesday and went into seclusion. Gilbert

In Rio, officials of the International Police Agency and the U.S. Embassy said they had received no information on Gilbert. It was reported, however, that Gilbert entered Brazil with a visa valid for 30 days and that if he wanted to stay longer he would have to apply for an extension.

One Way Ticket

At Idlewild Airport in New York, Gilbert bought a one-way ticket and said he might be staying in Rio "for about six weeks," the airline said.

Gilbert, 38, who rocketed to Wall Street fame four years ago when he practically "cornered" the stock of the E. L. Bruce Co. and became its president, made company checks withdrawals amounting to $1,953,000 between May 28 through June 4. It was on May 28 that the stock market started its downward plunge.

What happened to the money has not been determined.

Prosecutor Investigates

Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan is looking into the withdrawal.

Early Tuesday night the E. L. Bruce firm, a leading manufacturer of hardwood flooring, released a statement saying Gilbert voluntarily had disclosed the unauthorized withdrawals and that he had resigned.

The company quoted Gilbert as saying his actions were directed to "the protection of an acquisition program on behalf of the corporation and, in my judgment, were in the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders."

Wiley Has New Plan to Halt Appointment

Uses 'Senatorial Courtesy' to Block Green Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., has urged the rule of "senatorial courtesy" in a move to delay action on the nomination of John G. Green, a Superior, Wis., newspaper executive, as collector of customs in the Superior-Duluth, Minn. district.

The third member of the Lao triumvirate, pro-Western Gen. Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., and Phoumi Nosavan, is slated to tell a newsman the maneuver stemmed from a patronage fight.

Switzerland June 24 or 25, news scheduled to attend the wedding on Green's nomination, made by President Kennedy.

"Everything Is Good"

Wiley told the committee "everything I have heard about Green is good," but asked the delay to allow the Republican now holding the post, Dr. George

N. Sundquist, to serve out his term which the senator said would end in March 1963.

Wiley, who is seeking reelection this year, used the rule of "senatorial courtesy" in an effort to get the committee to go along with him. The "courtesy" maneuver is a less severe action than declaring a nominee to be personally objectionable. The latter stand usually blocks a nomination, but is rarely used.

Proxmire, who testified at a Vientiane hearing in support of Green, said Sundquist had been allowed to remain in office a year and a half from the start of the Kennedy administration and that was long enough.

Republicans Replaced

The Democrat who held the job

at the start of the Eisenhower administration was replaced in the first year, Proxmire said.

Wiley insisted Sundquist had done an excellent job and should be allowed to complete a full term.

Nevertheless, they said that Gen.

Phoumi should remain in term.

He protested that eight Republican postmaster appointments he recommended in the 9th Congressional District had been blocked by Democrats during the Eisenhower administration, and that all jobs have since been filled by Democrats named by Kennedy.

Lawrence Says If Kennedy Fails, So Will U.S. Economy

President Could Be Great, but He Is Floundering

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — John F. Kennedy could still make a great president. Only a professional partisan would wish him to fail. Yet, if Mr. Kennedy fails in the present crisis, the country's economy will fail, too. He has a chance to save it from a fate worse than the nation encountered in Lawrence in the 1930's. But he is floundering. He is surrounded by inexperienced though well-meaning advisers. The outlook, therefore, is not good, and the sooner the President learns how to reverse his course and move forward, the quicker the whole situation will improve.

What can the President do that he is not now doing?

First, it is essential that all luxury spending by the government — all so-called "welfare" items, for example, that are normally attractive from a political viewpoint — be postponed and expenditures confined to absolute necessities.

Foreign Spending

Second, it is essential that all spending in the foreign field that is not absolutely necessary in carrying on the cold war be deferred. This will help materially to solve the problem of cutting down the flow of American gold to foreign countries, which is jeopardizing the future value of the dollar. And it is time for the prosperous nations of Western Europe to do more to help on the economic side in the cold war.

Third, it is essential that the President wishes to have a separate council of ten labor leaders, or a separate council of small businessmen, or any other group which can help on any important factor in the economic progress of the country. These councils could be very useful, too. The "joint commission" idea is just a debating society. The time is past, moreover, when matters like these can be delegated either to a cabinet officer here or there, or to a group of professors and theoreticians who, by reason of their daily contact with the Presi-

Land Use Control Urged Outside City

Municipality Should Have Power In Nearby Areas, State Unit Says

FIRST EDITION P. A-4
Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Growing cities and villages should have the power to control land use beyond their municipal boundaries where urban residents live in unincorporated territory, a legislative study committee on urban expansion problems agreed here Wednesday.

Members also agreed that persuading the legislature to grant such controls in defiance of the resistance of town boards may be extremely difficult to achieve.

City Manager Douglas Weiford of Eau Claire told his committee colleagues land use control in urban developments outside urban corporate limits is the single most challenging problem in local government today. It will become more acute, he warned, as the country gains in population during the next decade and finds most of it in urbanized clusters on the fringes of incorporated municipalities.

Cooperation Questioned
Members of the committee spent a day disputing the viewpoint that such cooperation between urban central governments and suburban towns should be obtained through voluntary means, and the contrary view that such cooperation won't be obtained and some form of compulsion through state legislation will be required.

Members agreed to have the committee staff prepare a bill for further study next month that would provide some degree of coercion upon cities and their town neighbors through state statute, although Sen. Gerald Lorge of Outagamie County flatly predicted that such a measure will be rejected by the legislature.

"This is compulsory cooperation you're talking about," scoffed Assemblyman Merrill Stalbaum of rural Racine County. "Cooperation is a matter of good will and understanding and public relations."

Limited Power
Cities and villages now have limited extra-territorial jurisdiction, as in approving land subdivisions. But they cannot enact zoning controls outside their own boundaries, and in some localities the counties and the towns have been unable to legislate such controls.

The committee has also considered legislation that would give the larger urbanized counties exclusive land use zoning powers without the right of veto by town boards, and a plan to set up metropolitan area authorities for land use zoning and planning in all localities where there is a second class city.

The latter proposal will be considered at length next month. It is the proposal of Prof. J. H. Beuscher of the University of Wisconsin, several of whose earlier plans to expand metropolitan government concepts in Wisconsin have been rejected.

That there is an increasing awareness of the need for collaboration between towns in urban fringes and the parent cities or villages was indicated when

Robert Mortenson of the Wisconsin Towns Association reported that he intends to ask the next legislature for enabling acts to authorize additional and specific cooperative ventures.

Congressman to Speak To Democratic Group

Owen Monfils, Democratic representative for Congress from Wisconsin's Eighth District will speak at today's meeting of the Outagamie County Democratic Party at 8 p.m. in the Ambrosia Room of the Elm Tree Bakery.

Other party candidates for county offices will speak. Plans for the party convention at Sheboygan June 22 and 23 will be discussed.

Kaukauna to Borrow for Road Building

$100,000 Transferred From Account to Vocational School

KAUKAUNA — The finance committee of the common council voted Tuesday to re-borrow $100,000 from a bank for the street improvement fund.

The loan is required because of several fund transfers to complete financing for the new vocational school addition.

In 1961, the council borrowed $100,000 to pay for a road project not included in the 1961 budget.

That loan was repaid from funds received in a sale of bonds to finance a high school district project. The council previously had lent that amount of money to the school district for plant improvements.

The council then transferred $100,000 from the road improvement fund to the vocational school to pay for the school addition. The new borrowing will replace that money and replenish the road fund.

Work On Building

Work on the vocational building will get underway within a few weeks. The directors of that school have indicated classrooms completed prior to fall would be made available to the high school until addition to that school is completed.

Enrollment at the high school for the coming year has forced school officials to use the band room for regular classrooms and transfer band and choral classes to the auditorium. Study halls are also being earmarked for use as classrooms, thus students may be found frequenting nearest waterways while boating, fishing or water skiing.

Many More Freshmen Want To Enter State Colleges

Freshman applications for admission to the nine Wisconsin state colleges in 1962-63 from State Colleges continue to run last year; La Crosse 821, up 59; Oshkosh 1,050, up 197; Platteville 665, up 81; River Falls 572, up 186; Stevens Point 924, up 111; and Whitewater 1,322, up 166.

A survey of State College registrars indicated that on June 1, applications for admission from new freshmen exceeded last year's record June mark by 1,039.

Eugene R. McPhee, director of state colleges, said 3,849 men and 3,263 women had applied for admission as freshmen by June 1, compared with 3,278 men and 2,793 women who had done so by this time last year.

"It was not too many years ago," observed McPhee, "that the total enrollment of the State Colleges was some 7,000 students. The 1962 freshman class should exceed this."

Dormitory reservations also are running well ahead of last year, and space is at a premium in most institutions despite the fact that 11 new dormitories housing 2,500 students will be ready for occupancy this fall.

Room Reservations Up
As of June 1, some 4,776 rooms had been reserved compared with the figure 3,570 on June 1, 1961. Colleges reporting dormitory space still available were La Crosse (men and women), Platteville (mainly men), Stout (men and women), and Superior (men and women).

The State Colleges are also building another round of 12 dormitories which will be ready for use by the fall of 1963.

Giving Aid to Reds

The move in Congress to cut off all foreign aid to countries with Communist governments reflects two things: the growing disillusion both in Congress and the nation that the aid helps the free world, and something less than confidence in President Kennedy's foreign policies.

There is nothing new about aid to Communist countries or about criticism of such aid. Both factors are bi-partisan. But the action in the Senate, which first cut off all aid and then modified the amendment so that agriculture surpluses were exempt from the ban, is the strongest opposition to such aid that we have experienced since it was begun. And the House of Representatives may be expected to take an even dimmer view of the continuance of such aid without some sort of concrete evidence that it is doing any good.

The two countries particularly involved are Poland and Yugoslavia. When Tito had his famous break with Stalin, it appeared there might be a good chance of luring him away from allegiance to Moscow. In fact, for quite a while he simply didn't dare go back. But with Khrushchev's softer line, things have brightened in the Communist hierarchy for Tito. After the Belgrade meeting of the "uncommitted" nations who showed themselves really quite thoroughly committed at least to severe criticism of the United States, and an understanding shrug toward Russian nuclear tests, it became apparent that Tito was not about to become a Republican or even a Democrat.

However, there remained the very possible chance that our aid, particularly of weapons including jet planes and the training of Yugoslavian pilots, could buy Tito's neutrality, not because he would be grateful but because he feared being swallowed up by a complete Soviet triumph. There still is this chance. But how far—and how long—can we afford to pour money into a nation whose allegiance we cannot hope to have and whose neutrality we must increasingly doubt?

Poland is another matter. Given any sort of chance, we suspect that the majority of Poles would fight with the United States any time against the Russians. Their almost hysterical welcome of Vice President Nixon two years ago indicated their feelings. But the large portion of our aid to Poland is food anyway. Any military aid promptly would be turned to the use of the Russians since Gomulka, unlike Tito, owes his position to the Soviet Union.

As long as we are pouring increasing millions into the defense of Southeast Asia, it makes little sense to give Tito much more than food. Obviously surplus agriculture products also help Communist regimes as they tend to keep down the revolt that might come from a hungry people. But perhaps that is a risk we can take since sending the food costs us little.

The very fact that the Senate did at first vote to shut off all help should alert the people of Yugoslavia and Poland. Sometime along the way they must become responsible for their own governments. We can understand the problem, particularly in Poland, directly under the guns of Russian military might. But the threat of the end of aid can serve a diplomatic purpose, too, at least as far as Tito's encouragement of neutrals to back Communism is concerned and perhaps for providing more trouble for Comrade Gomulka.

Sometimes it seems it would be better if we knew that Tito were irretrievably committed to Khrushchev. If he no longer can hold the United States as an ace in the hole his value to Moscow also is going to fade.

Each Communist country, like each free one, is a separate problem in itself. We doubt they should be lumped together.

Cut Spending or Increase Taxes

Wisconsin state, county and municipal governments are hard pressed to find ways to meet the rising cost of government. Recently, when two representatives of taxpayer groups supported a proposal by Gov. Nelson to reorganize state government and reduce its 75 departments to 20, there was surprise in most political circles because in the past these conservative taxpayer groups actually have supported Republican proposals.

However, it is quite apparent that the search for ways to balance income and expenditures by the several levels of government is desperate enough to bring together odd political figures.

Recently Robert S. Washburn of the Beloit Taxpayers League and O. D. Miller of the Janesville Taxpayers League urged the Wisconsin Legislative Council's Efficiency in Government Committee to consider permissive legislation to consolidate counties or dissolve towns where needed. The spokesmen were quick to add that they were not suggesting any "dictated obliteration of county and town governments." They proposed that the people be given the option of changing their form of government to meet changing conditions.

They pointed out that Wisconsin is the only state devoting more than half of its spending to subsidize local government. This system, it was contended, enabled some communities to undertake functions which they did not need.

Lepers Flee the Viet Cong

One of the relatively small tragedies of warfare has befallen the inhabitants of a little village in Viet Nam. Like some other villages, Banmethuot was attacked by the Viet Cong. The villagers panicked and fled into the jungle. But they cannot there expect help from other refugees or from people in untouched villages. For the inhabitants of Banmethuot were lepers.

The colony was under the charge of Dr. Eleanor Vietti, a doctor from Texas, who was trying to impress the Vietnamese that leprosy is not as contagious as it is generally believed. Dr. Vietti was captured by the Viet Cong who seemed to be interested in nothing else except the doctor and a supply of surgical instruments. In general, the Viet Cong has returned unharmed these kidnaped medical missionaries once they have performed some emergency surgery for them.

But the lepers, many of them hobbling on crutches or the stumps of feet or legs, now are wandering in a jungle teeming with such animals as tigers and wild elephants. Like most primitive—and some civilized—people the Vietnamese in these remote jungle areas consider lepers outside the pall of human behavior. They often are buried or burned alive in order to prevent contamination.

The lepers in Viet Nam are among the innocent around the world who suffer not only because of human ignorance but from human indifference.

soul but shake her like a pear tree."

A popular international theme warns against excessive talk. The Chinese hold that a great talker never wants for enemies; talk does not cook rice; and mischief all comes of much opening of the mouth.

The English caution that "a spoken word cannot be recalled." Russian and Japanese proverbs express the same idea metaphorically. Russian version: "A word isn't a bird; if it flies out, you'll never catch it again." Japanese: "A word once uttered is beyond the reach of four galloping horses."

Poverty is another familiar theme, and a thread of cynicism runs through many of the sayings on this subject. West African: "Being poor makes it hard to have friends but not impossible." English: "When poverty comes in at the door, love flies out at the window."

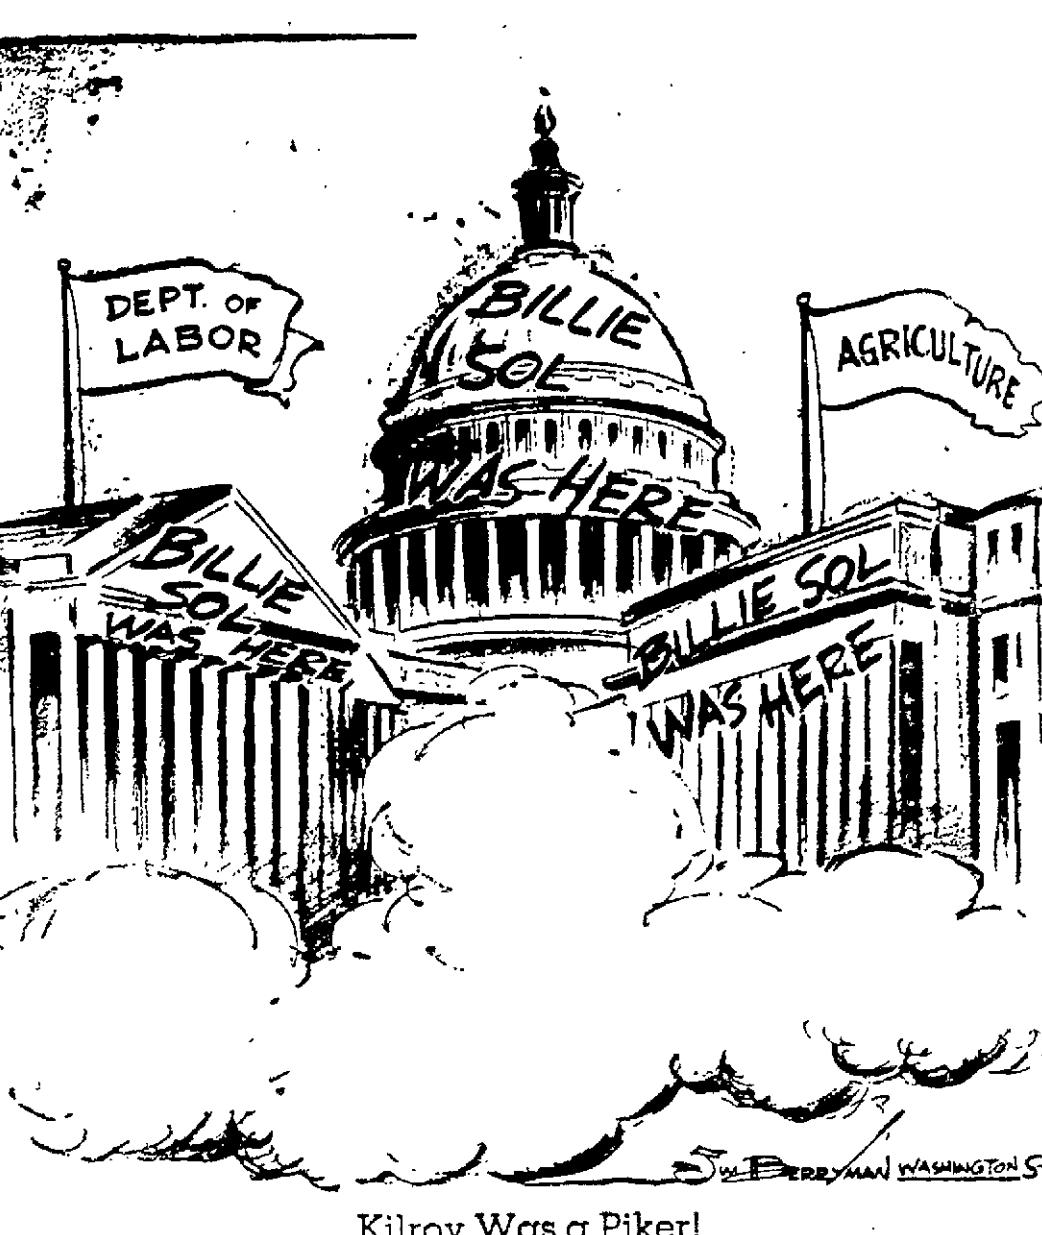

Chivalry dies in the old English couplet: "A spaniel, a woman, and a walnut tree. The more they're beaten the better they be." Russians put it more gently: "Love your wife like your as man drew upon common observations, experiences, and problems.

Women Are Popular

Thousands of proverbs have been coined about women. A group of West African sayings has a familiar ring. "If you want peace, give ear to your wives' proposals. . . Who marries a beautiful woman marries torment. . . Women take up their market baskets and also take up gossip."

Chivalry dies in the old English couplet: "A spaniel, a woman, and a walnut tree. The more they're beaten the better they be." Russians put it more gently: "Love your wife like your

Can't Wait Until '63

Tax Cut Decision Needed Soon To Get U. S. Economy Moving

BY WALTER LIPPMANN

While there is wide agreement that a tax cut is needed, there is an important difference of opinion on when it should be put into effect. The Administration's position is that a tax cut should be voted in the next session of Congress, if Lippmann possible in 1963.

If this is done, the effects of the cut will not at best be felt until some ten months from now.

There are others who think that it is imprudent to wait so long, that what the economy needs is the stimulation of additional demand in the near future. This could be had by action in this session of Congress to cut by a few percentage points the withholding from payrolls for taxes, as well as the installment payments in September and January for incomes and corporations. Eighty per cent of personal income tax is paid in the form of withheld wages and salaries.

The economic effect of an income tax cut on income and spending would be felt by the beginning of the month after it was enacted.

DECISION NEEDED

The argument for waiting until next year rests on the idea that if taxes are cut before the tax structure is reformed (as proposed by the administration), Congress is likely to lose interest in tax reform. The administration's current view is that for the long run tax reform is very important and that it should not be sidetracked by the popularity of a tax cut. On the contrary, the unpopular features of tax reform should be made more palatable by the tax cut.

This may be a correct estimate of Congressional psychology. The question is whether the prospects of the economy today do not require a decision to stimulate and prolong the recovery and avert a recession. Tax reform may be more difficult if the recovery is promoted and sustained by a tax cut. But everything will be more difficult if the recovery is aborted before it has been achieved.

CAUSES BEAR MARKET

Italian: "It is more easy to praise poverty than to beat it."

But being poor has its compensations, according to an English maxim that maintains: "Little goods, little care."

Cowards Have Sound Bones

In some British colonies, native proverbs are colorful adaptations of old English saws. Jamaicans say, "Puss may look 'pon king but him radder not." In British Honduras, "Coward man keep soun' bone" is the Creole way of declaring that discretion is the better part of valor.

Anthropologists believe proverbs were man's first great attempt at abstract thinking. They place proverbs between magical thinking and deductive reasoning in the development of human intelligence. When a civilization reaches the proverb stage, it has the beginnings of philosophy, ethics, and law. Their importance in primitive societies is summed up by a West African saying: "Talking a palaver without proverbs is like going on a journey without rice in your bag."

Though useful, proverbs often are contradictory as in "Look before you leap" and "He who hesitates is lost." The proverbial solution to this stalemate is "Circumstances alter cases." But a rebuttal might be "Wise men make proverbs, and fools repeat them."

DISLIKE TRUMAN

It is no explanation of the situation to say that businessmen do not like Kennedy and the Democrats and are therefore afraid to invest. They did not like Truman in 1950 but they did invest. They liked and trusted Eisenhower in 1960 but they did grind to a halt.

Potomac Fever — by Fletcher Knebel

JFK, in a major speech, offers the olive branch to business and the first big biz daddy who refuses an olive gets whopped over the head with the branch.

Republican Chairman Miller says if the party doesn't win this fall, it may never win again. On the other hand, if it doesn't lose this fall, it may never lose again—and who can say which prospect most alarms the country?

It's a time of restless indecision. One businessman isn't sure which line to purchase, making rockets for outer space—or parachutes for Wall Street.

Massachusetts Democrats say President Kennedy carries a staggering burden. And why not? He's a young man with a Ted on his shoulders.

The only exercise the owner of a new automatic transmission sports car gets is when he leans out to pick up long cigar butts.

Democratic Leader Mansfield wants to "re-examine" our foreign policy. You see, the last time our policy took an exam, it flunked.

Parochial School Bus

Problem Isn't Dead

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — The state supreme court's decision invalidating the 1961 legislative amendments to the school bus laws won't end the dispute about the claims of parochial and other non-public schools for a sharing in pupil transportation service, but it probably points to the ultimate concerning Wyngaard. It may be that some of those who voted earlier have changed their minds. But the 1946 referendum vote on such a constitutional amendment is kept in mind by most of the politicians interested in the subject, and it is not encouraging.

In an extraordinarily large turnout of voters, on a referendum question, the parochial school service amendment was defeated by a fairly decisive margin of 545,000 to 437,000.

If the normal parliamentary schedule is followed, another referendum could be held in the spring of 1963. If the 1961 legislature which is now in recess should return to session for any reason (such as decision to act on legislative redistricting) such an amendment could be approved this summer or fall, and approved again by the 1963 legislature, and put on the referendum ballot in 1963. In any event, the issue seems likely to be in the public debate arena for the next couple of years.

THE ANGER

Some persons who remember the depth of the animosities that were provoked in the 1946 fight may regret the prospect of a revival of the referendum vote.

This is one of the comparatively few questions in Wisconsin affairs in which opinions tend to be irreconcilable. There are Catholics and other backers of parochial schools who bitterly resent the idea that their children should be discriminated against, as they view it.

There are many Protestants and other non-Catholics who are as deeply offended at the suggestion that they are guilty of discrimination, and misunderstood for upholding what they regard as one of the basic principles of American politics, the complete separation of church and state.

It is to the problem of our divided recovery that the Administration ought, I think, to address itself primarily. I do not say that tax reform is not important and desirable. But recovery is more important and recovery should not be jeopardized by the legislative prospects for tax reform.

As for the reforms themselves, I must confess at once that I do not understand the proposals well enough yet to write about them at all. I feel reasonably certain, however, that the controversial items which are holding up the 1962 tax reform bill are not big enough to be of such crucial importance that they must have first priority.

made by many Protestants and other non-Catholics who are as deeply offended at the suggestion that they are guilty of discrimination, and misunderstood for upholding what they regard as one of the basic principles of American politics, the complete separation of church and state.

The reason why a tax cut is desirable is that it will relieve the deflationary pressure.

Looking Backward

Slavery Issue Back in News

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for June 14, 1862.

Gov. Stanley formerly resided in North Carolina and represented one district of that State in Congress. For a few years he has resided in California and now has recently been called by the President to assume the responsibilities as Military Governor of North Carolina.

He accepted the position and now has entered upon the duties of that office. His first acts were to oust pestiferous Abolition propagandists from their comfortable quarters at Newbern and assimilate as far as practicable the military government to the laws of the State previous to the Secession Act. This is done in strict conformity with the soul of our institutions, with the President's Inaugural and subsequent messages and proclamations whereby he did not intend and had no Constitutional right to interfere with local institutions.

It is now reported that Secretary of War Stanton is holding with indignation and rage at the bold conservatism of Gov. Stanley, and revokes the recent orders of that officer discontinuing the Negro schools because such schools are in violation of the laws of that state and decauses that he will not keep his seat in the Cabinet if such policy is sustained.

This, if true, shows that the Secretary of War has become infected with the rampant and disorganized schemes of Abolitionism, that he has struck hands with those who aim not so much at the restoration of the Constitutional authority in the rebellious districts as to the abolition of slavery in the States.

C. B. Clark, president of the Riverside Paper Company, was named president of the Lawrence College Board of Trustees. He succeeded the late William H. Hatten, New London. William E. Buchanan, vice president and sales manager of Appleton Wire Works, was named to the board to fill the Hatten vacancy.

Harry J. Jackson, Hortonville, was elected president of the Wisconsin Cooperative Milk Pool at the state convention in Oshkosh.

It Is a Rare Proverb That Has No Duplicate

WASHINGTON — In England too many cooks spoil the broth. In Russia a child with seven nurses loses an eye. In China too many bricklayers build a lopsided house.

Many other strikingly similar proverbs crop up in widely separated parts of the world, the National Geographic Society says. The Japanese say: "A woman's hair is strong enough to keep an elephant tied." An English proverb claims: "One hair of a woman draws more than a team of oxen."

These tributes to the tenacity of women and similar duplicates apparently developed independently in different areas and problems.

A popular international theme warns against excessive talk. The Chinese hold that a great talker never wants for enemies; talk does not cook rice; and mischief all comes of much opening of the mouth.

The English caution that "a spoken word cannot be recalled."

Russian and Japanese proverbs express the same idea metaphorically. Russian version: "A word isn't a bird; if it flies out, you'll never catch it again."

Japanese: "A word once uttered is beyond the reach of four galloping horses."

Poverty is another familiar theme, and a thread of cynicism runs through many of the sayings on this subject. West African:

Easy Recipes Turn Glamorous For a Sumptuous Wedding Buffet

BY LILLIAN MACKESY

Post-Crescent Food Editor

One of the loveliest gifts a mother can give her daughter bride is a beautiful party with creative foods from her own kitchen. The party can be the wedding reception . . . large or small . . . or a pre-wedding bridal tea. It will be something to remember . . . this special culinary gift made with loving care.

Too difficult to manage with all the hundreds of other last-minute preparations that go with weddings? Not at all if short-cuts are utilized in the form of convenience foods and easy to follow recipes. The glamor will result in the finished foods . . . a frosting on the cake sort of project.

An example is a wedding buffet for 50 guests with a menu that ranges from attractive hors d'oeuvres to slices of a beautiful (but easily made) three-tiered wedding cake. Parts of this menu may be adapted to a pre-nuptial party or a simple reception that features only punch and little cakes.

A variety of packaged crackers and wafers are used with many of the dishes and the delicate petit fours and traditional wedding cake are made with cake mixes.

Celery Thins are crumbled to add a delightful flavor to the Tuna Puffs. Cheese Rounds for a finger food have round, bacon-flavored crackers as a base.

The main dish of creamed sweetbreads and chicken livers is served over wholesome Triscuit Wafers, while thin, triangular crackers make an excellent accompaniment for the Frozen Cranberry Bells, served as a salad.

Wedding Cake

8 pkgs (17-ounce) pound cake mix

Wedding cake icing

Bake three layers in oblong pan, 13 by 9½ inches, 3 inches deep. This uses up five packages of cake, which make the first tier of the wedding cake.

To assemble the base tier, use one and one-half of the large cakes for each layer. The tier is two layers high. Attach the half-cakes to each large cake with frosting, then frost between layers before stacking.

Bake three nine-inch square layers to be used for the second and third tiers. Two of the nine-inch layers are stacked one on top of the other to form the second tier, with frosting in between the layers.

Cut the third and remaining nine-inch layer into quarters. Two of these quarters are put together with frosting to form the top tier. The remaining two squares may be used for sampling or practice with decorating tube.

When the cake is assembled it is ready for frosting.

Wedding Cake Icing

1 cup shortening (white)

1 teaspoon salt

24 cups sifted confectioners sugar

10 egg whites, unbeaten

1 cup milk

1 tablespoon lemon extract

Cream shortening by itself; add salt. Gradually add about one cup confectioners sugar, blending well.

Add remaining sugar alternately with egg whites and milk, beating until frosting reaches spreading consistency.

Add lemon extract (other desired flavoring may be substituted) and blend well into mixture.

Cooking with small electrical appliances makes summer living easy and mobile. But one important thing to check before plugging into portable cooking outdoors is the wiring. High-voltage ap. bowl covered with a damp cloth.

Appliances such as a broiler need be sure to put cake layers to wiring heavy enough to carry the weight with frosting. Then cover necessary current.

The Traditional, Formal wedding cake should be the center of interest on the buffet table. This lovely cake . . . made from eight, 17-ounce packages of pound cake mix . . . lives up to its elegance in a series of stacked square layers that are carefully iced and decorated. The first layer of icing is glossy smooth. Then the fluted layer goes on either with a pastry tube or by spatula, the flutings being made with a knife in the latter case. Using a star tip attachment in a decorating kit, the star borders are piped around the edges of the cake layers and the outer edge of the large tray. Real roses and leaves or the plastic variety are put into place as the final touch, just before serving time.

1 tablespoon light corn syrup
¾ cup water
1 pound sifted confectioners sugar (about 3 cups)
1 unbeaten egg white
2 tablespoons shortening (white)
1 teaspoon vanilla

Soften gelatin in one teaspoon cold water. In top of double boiler combine sugar, corn syrup and one-fourth cup water. Bring to a full rolling boil over direct heat, stirring until the sugar is dissolved. Remove from heat and stir in softened gelatin. Cool to 120 degrees, just above lukewarm.

Then stir in sifted confectioners sugar, unbeaten egg white, shortening and vanilla. Beat well. Spoon frosting over cakes on a rack over wax paper. Coat cakes thoroughly.

Gourmet Delight is the appropriate name for the main dish suggested for the wedding buffet. It is a hearty and flavorful combination of sweetbreads and chicken livers in a creamy sauce, served over Triscuit wafers. Charming wedding bells of molded cream cheese and colorful fruits, shown upper right, are a refreshing salad accompaniment.

The frosting may be reheated and poured again if it becomes too stiff.

Gourmet Delight

20 pairs sweetbreads

2 cups melted butter

8 pounds chicken livers

2 medium onions, chopped

1 tablespoon salt

2 teaspoons pepper

2 cans (10 1/2-ounce) condensed cream of celery soup

2 cans (10 1/2-ounce) condensed cream of mushroom soup

2 cups cans milk

Triscuit wafers

Soak sweetbreads in cold water for an hour, then simmer 15 minutes in fresh water to cover.

Place in ice water to chill before handling. Remove the skin and any fibrous parts. Cut into pieces.

Saute with chicken livers in melted butter for 40 minutes. Add chopped onion, salt, pepper, condensed soups and milk. Simmer for 30 minutes. To serve, spoon over Triscuit wafers. Recipe makes 50 servings.

Frozen Cranberry Bells

64 ounces cream cheese

1 cup confectioners sugar
4 cups drained pineapple chunks (reserve syrup)
4 cups drained apricots
4 cups whole cranberry sauce, drained
4 cups heavy cream, whipped
2 cups pineapple syrup

Soften cream cheese. Add confectioners sugar and fruit. Fold in whipped cream and reserved pineapple syrup. If juice from pineapple chunks does not equal two cups, add water.

Pour mixture into 50 half-cup bell-shaped molds. Fewer molds may be used by making one set at a time, filling, freezing, unmolding, then returning finished bells to freezer carefully wrapped in wax paper, and starting on the next batch.

The bells should be frozen until firm. They are unmolded on a bed of lettuce and served with a fruit dressing and snack crackers.

Tuna Puffs

Add one-half cup Celery Thins, crumbs to a package (8 1/2-ounce) of cream puff mix. Prepare according to package directions. Drop from teaspoon onto an ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in a 425-degree oven 30 to 35 minutes. Cool and fill with tuna salad. This recipe makes about 65 small puffs.

Tuna Salad Filling

28 ounces canned tuna
1 cup mayonnaise
2 cups chopped celery
3/4 cup chopped pimento
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper

Drain canned tuna fish well.

Combine with rest of ingredients, blending well. Fill tiny cream puffs.

Wedding Punch

4 cans frozen pineapple-lemon punch concentrate 4 cans frozen grapefruit juice
4 cans frozen raspberry-lemon punch concentrate 4 quarts water
2 quarts orange soda

Mix all the ingredients, except orange soda. Just before serving time, add two quarts orange soda.

Serve with plenty of ice in punch bowl and keep punch cool at all times. Recipe makes about eight quarts of punch.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Pair

WITTENBERG — Miss Barbara Jean Moody and Theodore Joseph LaVague Jr. exchanged marriage promises in a 4 p.m. double ring ceremony Saturday at the Methodist Church. The Rev. Marvin Baker officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Moody.

BDM Schedules Family Day for Fourth of July

A Fourth of July Family Day is planned at Butte des Morts Golf club. A five hole family golfing event, games, rides and prizes are included in the list of activities. An outdoor supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Scherzinger is golf chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Nehs will have charge of games, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. John Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vincent, and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Cunningham. Mrs. Cunningham is also dinner chairman.

Reservations may be made until Monday with Mrs. Karl Manthey, chairman.

Cologne Cools Summer's Heat

Cologne-by-the-quart goes with hot, humid weather the way a summer shower goes with a thirsty flower garden. Summer time is really cologne time. All other seasons a cologne aids and abets the matching perfume, but during the sultry weather it's the cologne that dominates the scene. Then, it's for slathering on lavishly . . . the more the better.

There's a reason for this: a cologne is a cologne and not a perfume because it contains in addition to the perfume essence a high percentage of cooling, soothing, refreshing alcohol that works a magic on body warmth. And the while a cologne does its cooling job, it imparts just enough scent to the skin to surround you with a delightfully refreshing aura of fragrance.

Bachelor Has Full Time Job

BY JOY MILLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Being a bachelor in Washington can be almost a full-time job. If the unattached male has a prominent position in government it's a tossup with the hardworking hostesses whether he is doing more for his country in his official capacity or as a dinner partner for some widowed, aged, visiting or temporarily unescorted female who simply must be invited.

Few among the unsung, unwed but well-fed stage feel the urge to analyze their meal tickets to print. Robert Keith Gray is an exception, and his recently published book "Eighteen Acres Under Grass" (dimensions of the White House grounds) is a good-humored guidebook to, among other things, Washington's terribly serious social life.

On the "List" When handsome, uncommitted Bob Gray was secretary of the Cabinet in the Eisenhower administration he was listed by the press as one of the Capitol's most eligible bachelors. He was able to preserve his native Nebraska modesty when he discovered another most-eligible was Sen. Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island, aged 93.

He's now a far-from-feeble 39 and his white hair, which he's had from school days, lends a man of distinction air. Since leaving government service he's been vice-president of a public relations firm and a continuing pet of Washington hostesses.

"The amount of business transacted at a social event is substantial," Gray says.

Temporary Status "Women have a greater part in running the country here than anyplace else in the world. Men may hold the key jobs, but the influence of their wives is tremendous."

Gray says he feels himself only a temporary bachelor, but "it's hard to break out of the bachelor status in Washington. You're sought after to fill places, and hostesses don't team you up with eligible girls. You're never asked, even for dances, to bring a date."

IT'S EASY to miss tiny but dangerous splinters when you're picking up after a broken bottle accident. Once you've mopped and swept and you can see no more glass bits, wet a paper towel (folded several thicknesses) and blot it over the entire area. Chances are, you'll discover shiny specks stuck to the paper.

Flowers; Borders For Special Cakes

Roses, daisies, wedding day with the leaf point being made hearts and Cupids, all kinds of mouth-watering designs and symbols can be simply formed with a bit of practice using four basic plastic decorating tips with the new dessert decorating icings and gels in plastic tubes.

There also is a miniature, plastic pastry chef's nail on which apple blossoms, tea roses, pansies or orange blossoms may be formed.

First of the four tips is the writing tip, which also may be used to make fine lines, flower stems and other simple designs. In using it, gradually raise the tip a bit for a smooth glide without digging in to the frosting.

The star tip makes cake top and border decorations—loop and shell-type edge trimmings. Use a simple writing motion for loops hold tube at 45 degree angle, squeeze, and as icing shell builds up lift tip one-quarter inch, relax pressure as you push the tube down again. This forms point as you stop squeezing. Rosettes, bachelor buttons and fantasy buds are made with simple squeeze and stop motion.

Three basic borders may be used to decorate the outer edges of cakes. The easiest is the dot border. Hold the tube straight up and down and press out a dot at a time, overlapping each one just bit to connect them. Presto, a completed border.

Another simple one to master is the "e" border. Just hold the tube at a 45 degree angle and form the handwritten letter "e," putting a chain of these together all the way around the top edge of your cake. . . "eeeeeeeeee's".

Requiring a bit of practice is the shell border. First, try and make a single tear drop. Hold tube at 45 degree angle. Squeeze hard at first, gradually relaxing pressure then pull tube away.

Overlap the first one with the second and so on to form a chain.

Be sure and make each the same size.

Marriage Promises Exchanged

KIMBERLY — Nuptial vows were exchanged at 10 a.m. today by Miss Judith Ann Geenen and named delegates to the national John Gregory Lamers at Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church. The Rev. Joseph Kools performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the nuptial high mass.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Geenen, 604 E. Third St., and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lamers, 114 S. Pine St.

Miss Marge Menting, Combined Locks, attended as maid of honor. The bride's sister, Miss Kathy Geenen, was bridesmaid. Miss Lynn Geenen, another sister of the bride, was junior bridal aide.

Best man was Kenneth Dollevoet. Donald Lamers served as groomsman for his brother. The bridegroom's brother, Reginald Lamers, Beaver Dam, and Thomas Gossens shared ushering duties.

A dinner, reception and dance will be held at the Appleton Club. The couple was graduated from Kimberly High School. Mrs. Lamers was employed at Kimberly-Clark Corp. Her husband is a student at Michigan State University, East Lansing, Mich.

After a northern Wisconsin honeymoon, the couple will live at 1614 E. Spartan Village, East Lansing.

Laundry Semantics

The variety of laundry products in today's supermarket poses a problem for most consumers. The word "detergent," for instance, appears on many packages. It applies to anything that cleans.

There are two types of detergents: "light-duty" for dishwashing and cleaning lightly soiled fabrics and "all-purpose" for the family laundry and for removing heavy soil.

Prices Mixed In Up, Down Stock Session

Decline at Start, Followed by Rally And Another Drop

NEW YORK (AP)—In another up-and-down stock market session, prices were mixed in heavy trading early this afternoon. Showing how little change there was on balance, The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at exceeding 5 points, cut its loss to 212.40 with industrials down .30, about 3.

day," said one broker, "a decline at the start, a rally, then another decline."

Gloom Was Thick
Gloom was thick at the start, the Dow Jones industrial average set a new 1962 closing low Wednesday. However, prices were supported once again by a rush of buying at the reduced prices.

Tobaccos held a string of plus signs, but the pattern was scrambled in most other groups. As a sample of the stock action, IBM dipped fractionally to a new yearly low at the start, spurted up to show a net gain of more than 9, weakened to a net loss of 212.40 with industrials down .30, about 3.

Corporate bonds were mixed. Blue chips wobbled continuously between gains and losses, some losses in quiet trading.

Iowa Authorities Catch Pair From Flambeau Prison

Two escapees from the State Prison Forestry Camp at Flambeau near Ladysmith, who spent more than 12 hours in the Appleton area Tuesday have been captured and are being held in Monticello, Iowa.

Ronald C. Smith, 22, formerly of route 1, Appleton, and Keith Phillips, 20, of Eau Claire, were arrested by Monticello police at 3:30 a.m. Wednesday afternoon as they attempted to abandon a 1961 automobile they had stolen when they three weeks after his accident.

According to Outagamie County Sheriff Robert Heinritz, Smith urban Somerville. A new puppy placed a phone call to a former named "Sandy"—a homecoming employer in Appleton Tuesday afternoon saying he was in Iowa.

Phillips' sister who took the call said, "I really want to thank those doctors in the Jones County Iowa Sheriff Lewis Dreibelbis that the pair were in his area.

The two escapees apparently counts of burglary and one count of theft. Phillips was sentenced from Eau Claire County.

Builds New Substation

Wisconsin Michigan Power Co. has doubled the capacity of its W. Spencer St. substation at Bluemound Drive with the installation of $100,000 worth of new equipment. The expansion was made to take care of load growth from industrial, commercial and residential customers served by the station.

The new substation is served by a 34,500-volt transmission system. Four circuits of 4,160 volts each distribute power from the station.

Protective equipment reduces the possibility of service interruptions. Circuits open and close automatically to keep power flowing to the area.

Hospital Unit on Active Duty Training

MENASHA — The 44th General Hospital, Army Reserve unit based in Madison, Menasha and Sheboygan, is on active duty training at Ft. Riley, Kan., until Sunday.

The Menasha unit, Section 2, has eight medical officers, three nurses and seven enlisted men.

The association was formed two years ago to coordinate the activities of local symphonies in Wisconsin.

The parent unit of Madison is affiliated with the University of Wisconsin Medical School.

Pilot Tired, But Happy After World Record Helicopter Flight

"He was mostly tired, but happy too," Mrs. Richard H. Coan said to describe her husband's reaction to his world record flight in a helicopter.

Capt. Richard H. Coan called his wife in Kaukauna late Wednesday night after a long day and a very long seven hour flight at Mono Lake, Calif., in the Inyo National Forest.

Mrs. Coan and her 10-month-old child were visiting her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John Werschem, 630 Joyce St. She is the former Marilyn Werschem.

Her husband, an Air Force pilot, lived in Menasha before he joined the service in 1956. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Coan now live at 808 S. Park Ave., Neenah. He will return to see them Friday.

All Went Well
"Everything went well," the young pilot told his wife of his 656.258 mile flight over a closed course marked by pylons.

Though that was his account, he was so low on fuel after the flight that he landed on a state highway as state patrolmen blocked off traffic.

Only a week before, he had failed in a similar attempt to set the world record.

Capt. Coan told his wife that he arose to prepare for the flight at 3:30 a.m. Wednesday. When he called, it was about 8 p.m. in California. On his previous try, he put in a 20-hour day.

"We only talked about the flight for a short time," Mrs. Coan said this morning. Then she told her husband about a heart attack that his mother suffered. Capt. Coan hadn't known of it. His mother is recovering in the hospital.

If Capt. Coan's success story was clouded by bad news about his mother, the Air Force was exuberant. A sergeant in the information service who called the Post-Crescent with the story boasted in a sergeant's loud voice about Capt. Coan's shattering of the Russian record for distance in a helicopter over a closed course.

"Let me tell you what our boy did," he exclaimed. Then he said Capt. Coan's flight beat a Russian record of 625.464 miles set her mother's house in Kaukauna in June, 1960.

"This is the first time he's done anything like this," Mrs. Coan said.

Capt. Coan will return to the Fox Cities Friday morning on the first plane he can catch. He will have at least two weeks, and maybe three, to visit his father

As Capt. Richard H. Coan flew a seven-hour world record flight in a helicopter in California, his wife and 10-month-old son, Jeffrey Scott, waited at her parents home in California. Capt. Coan lived in Menasha before they were married. Coan's flight broke a Russian record for distance over a closed course. His reported to his wife late Wednesday night was, "Everything went well."

and ailing mother and his in-laws. Then he will return to Basc. Dayton, Ohio, to get an engineering degree.

At Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, to get an engineering degree.

He stopped on the way to California about three weeks ago to drop his wife and child off at Capt. Coan's house in Kaukauna.

He spent two days here and left. His helicopter training began in 1957 at Randolph Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. His present duty is rescue work and fire fighting in helicopters. He is on alert 24 hours a day.

Capt. Coan graduated from Menasha High School in 1950 and from Lawrence College in 1955. He took R.O.T.C. at Lawrence and entered the service as a Second Lieutenant in 1956. He trained at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, at Partow, Fla., and at Vance Air Force Base, Enid, Okla.

After his helicopter training, he was assigned to Lake Charles, La., and Goose Bay, Labrador. From there he went to Charleston.

In a year, he will attend the Air Force Institute of Technology

NEENAH — Three persons forfeited fines of $20.50 plus costs each for drunkenness and the money was turned over to County Branch 3 Judge James V. Sitter Tuesday.

They are Cornelius LeNoble, 404 N. Appleton St., Appleton, arrested at 12:35 p.m. on June 4 on Walnut Street; Earl G. Besaw Sr., route 1, Appleton, arrested at 12:35 p.m. on June 4 on Walnut Street, and Carl J. Messman, 61, 220 State St., arrested at 11:30 p.m. on June 5.

A group of doctors has offered the city $17,000 for Mary Jewell Sawyer Park at Oshkosh Avenue and Punhoqua Street to build a new clinic.

The land, which fronts on Sawyer Creek, was deeded to the city in 1918 but was never developed as a park. City officials feel there is sufficient park space in that part of the city and would rather develop parks elsewhere.

Area residents strongly protested the plans and urged development of the grounds. An official of Pluswood Corp., also opposing the sale, suggested if the council was in the park selling mood the city might sell Rainbow Park to Pluswood for a parking lot site.

Monroe Firing May be Landmark for Studios

May Mark End of Star Coddling Policy Employed by Movies in Past

BY BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Future punctuality historians may mark the firing of Marilyn Monroe as the turning point in the studios' relations with stars.

Offhand you might think that any studio that would fire Marilyn could be considered out of its corporate mind. But that happened last week when the famed blonde was handed a pink slip and a half-million-dollar suit for slapping "Something's Got to Give."

Marilyn said she had been ill. The studio claimed her illness wasn't physical and it could not longer afford her phobia against punctuality.

The merits of each case remain to be thrashed out perhaps in the courts. But trend-seekers may be able to draw this conclusion: the already-aging movie industry cannot afford temperament any more.

Perhaps in other times 20th Century Fox might have tried to ease Marilyn through the filming it did so in "Let's Make Love."

But on another continent a movie titled "Cleopatra" was grinding out the company's dwindling millions. Faced with tempestuous stars at two ends of its operation, something had to give.

Stars have been fired before. Distressed with Judy Garland's tardiness and tantrums, MGM summarily dismissed her from "Anne Get Your Gun." Betty Hutton got the job.

Stars Free Lance

Such stern treatment of stars has disappeared in the past decade. The reasons are simple: all stars became free-lancers, independent of studio control. With studios failing to develop new talent, the established stars were more and more in demand and were given free rein.

This matter of giving stars free rein has hit some studios where it hurts — right in the profit column.

The studios now can pause and wonder: Are some stars worth all the trouble?

Some observers say stars are not that important. They point out that The Last Sunset with Kirk Douglas and Rock Hudson was a bomb. The Misfits with Monroe, Gable, Clift, etc., was also a dud. Names don't always sell.

On the other hand, some stars can be unique. No one could play Cleopatra better than Liz Taylor. No one is a more convincing sex-pot than Marilyn Monroe.

But faced with using unique stars and inviting bankruptcy, the studios may be forced to get along without them.

State Pushes Soviet Workers To Limit; Takes All Profit

Factory Worker Rated, Paid According to Piece-Work Output

She must pay 6 per cent income tax—$4.61 on her $76.86 monthly salary—but Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has promised to eliminate this tax in a few years. She must also pay 1 per cent to the union for welfare. If she speedup go into the state's pocket directly, instead of via taxation, the Soviet Union allows no secondary jobs. Nine out of 10 women are married.

Every dish-maker belongs to one of six classes of labor, according to his output. Joseph Stalin's axiom is still in force, though the ex-dictator is officially in disgrace: "From each according to his ability, to each according to his work." All dish

After years of work, she may rise to be a foreman at $110 a month, but most such jobs go to men.

The state buys the teacups from the plant at 20 cents to $1.10 each, then sells them to the public at a 50 to 100 per cent markup.

The state gets its labor cheap.

The plant's operator, like most industries, is the "sovmarkhod" or regional economic authority. Of the $990,000 budget this year, only 33 per cent went for salaries. Materials are cheap except for kaolin, a pure white clay, which comes from the Ukraine 1,500 miles to the west.

The sovmarkhod hikes the target for output 10 per cent every year. There is a $22 annual bonus for each worker meeting this target, but nothing for the inefficient.

The state uses its huge profits partly to expand the plant. The sovmarkhod ordered the output to go up an extraordinary 25 per cent next year, but authorized the hiring of 200 more employees.

The Communist Party has 30

members in the plant—that is, 1 in 10—as against the 1 in 25 ratio of 1 woman to 200 in the party. Control of industrial manpower is the heart of Soviet mastery.

Top staff members get from $132 to $143 a month, while the director gets $154, after seven years experience. Women retire work averages.

GI Turncoat Gets Red Carpet Treatment From North Koreans

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Pyongyang radio says an American soldier has taken refuge in Communist North Korea and likes what he has seen—"people leading free, happy and peaceful lives."

The soldier was identified as Pvt. Larry A. Abshier, 18, of Cleveland, Ohio. The U.S. Army said he apparently was the first American defector to the Reds in Korea since the end of the Korean War.

Abshier, serving with a reconnaissance squad along the armistice line, was last seen running across the no man's land toward the north on May 28. He ignored calls to turn back.

The North Koreans said they gave the young GI a red carpet reception, taking him to the capital of Pyongyang and other cities.

Downs Harrison On 5-Run Rally In Fifth Inning

KAUKAUNA—Kaukauna scored in only one inning, but it was enough to edge Harrison, 5-4, in a Fox River Valley Baseball League contest here Wednesday evening.

The Klubbers tallied five times in the fifth frame to offset three runs in the fourth and a lone marker in the eighth by Harrison. Both teams had 0-3 marks going into the game.

Jerry DeBruin's double was the big blow of the inning. The Kaukauna team was also aided by three errors. Carl Bowers' single was the only other hit in the big inning.

Joe Wittman singled home two of the three Harrison tallies in the fourth. It was Joe Wittman again who started the action in the eighth for Harrison with a single.

Leigh Wachelp went the distance for Kaukauna. He gave up five hits, fanned seven, and walked three. Cliff Reed started for Harrison but gave way to Dick Wankey in the fifth.

Pirate wins, came on to retire the last four Cubs and save the win for Alvin McBean. A three-run blast by Bill Virdon broke a 2-2 deadlock in the sixth and tagged Cal Koonce with the loss. Bill Williams, who boosted his batting average to .345 with three hits, homered in the sixth and scored on Don Landrum's single in the eighth before Face came on.

The Cardinals concluded a 9-1

Allison's Homer in Eighth Gives

Twins 4-2 Triumph Over Angels

BY JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Allison is the latest hero in the rotating cast of stars for Minnesota's surprising Twins, who again find themselves barely out of the American League lead they've been pursuing since the fire started in April.

Allison clpped Los Angeles reliever Ryne Duren for a two-run home with two out in the eighth inning Wednesday night, powering

the Twins to a come-from-behind

4-2 decision over the Angels. The victory hoisted Minnesota back into second place only 10 percentage points behind the New York

Yankees, whose home game against Detroit was rained out.

Meanwhile, Cleveland slipped back to third—but still only a half game off the pace—in a doubleheader split with Washington, winning the second game 4-1

after dropping the opener 4-2.

Kansas City knocked over Chi-ago again, 4-3. And Don

Schwall's two-hit pitching led Boston over Baltimore 4-0.

Dean Chance, fined along with fellow Angel pitcher Bo Belinsky

for an early-morning peccadillo, started as advertised against the Twins and did well after being tagged for doubles by Lennie

Green and Rich Rollins in the first. He finally was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh and

Minnesota proceeded to cash in against Duren.

Spahn Loses Fifth One-Run Decision; Dodgers Win, 2-1

Braves Send Bob Shaw to Hill In Windup of 3-Game Series

MILWAUKEE (AP)—If the Milwaukee Braves don't start getting some runs for Warren Spahn, the southpaw ace will become a 20-game loser instead of winning his usual 20.

The 41-year-old left-hander suffered another heart-breaking defeat as the Braves were handcuffed on three hits by Sandy

Koufax and bowed to the first place Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1

Wednesday night at County Stadium.

Spahn and Koufax, who hadn't started school when the Braves hurled his pro career, hooked up in a pitching duel before a crowd of 14,913, the largest in Milwaukee since a 30,001 turnout opening day.

The Clinton C-Sox, White Sox

farm club, will appear at Goodland Field at 8 p.m. today. If by Koufax's first homer in eight day night and Saturday night, seasons in the National League.

Tonight and Friday, each family unit will be admitted for a total price of $1.

Midwest League-leading Dubuque plays here Sunday and in-Monday nights. All fathers will be admitted for a 35-cent service charge Sunday night. A regular

"Knot-Hole Gang" and "Ladies

Night" attraction is set for Monday.

McMillan Homers

The only other hits off Spahn

the rest of the way were Koufax's homer and three bunts. But Koufax had all he needed as he stopped the Braves twice with a runner on third and only one out.

Ron McMillan accounted for the one Milwaukee run with his sixth homer, a line shot to left in the ninth.

Spahn struck out seven, one more than Koufax, before he was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth. Hank Fischer set down the Dodgers in order in the ninth.

Koufax retired the last 12 battters in a row after McMillan's

homer as he gained his ninth strikeout against two defeats. His strikeouts boosted his total for year to 137, tops in the major leagues.

Spahn was left with a 6-7 record.

Five of his defeats have been

by one run—a pair of 2-1 decisions.

curfew law with almost unpredictable

The Athletics topped the White Sox for the sixth straight time and for the seventh time in nine meetings this season with a two-run rally in the seventh highlighted by classy base running and clutch hitting. After banging into a force play, Dick Howser stole his second base of the game and rode in on Jose Tartabull's second run-producing single of the night. Tartabull then stole second, took third on an infield out and scored the clincher on Manny Jimenez' single.

3 Americans In Running for British Title

Robert Sweeny, 50, Palm Beach Socialite, Bids for Comeback

HOYLAKE, England (AP) — Robert Sweeny, suave golf star of the 1930s, plays another grueling 36 holes today in his bid for a comeback.

The 50-year-old socialite from Palm Beach, Fla., is one of three Americans among the 32 players still contending for the British Amateur Championship.

The others are Pat Brady of Reidsville, N.C., and Richard D. Davies, of Pasadena, Calif.

It is eight years since Sweeny last played in this tournament and 25 years since he won it. But the fans are still fascinated by the slim elegant figure, now gray-haired and looking a little thin in the legs.

3-Hour Rest

Among the crowd watching Wednesday's play, many ignored the rest of the field and followed Sweeny in his two matches. He defeated John Glover of Northern Ireland 1 up in the morning and then, after a three hour rest, whipped Harry Wilton of England 5 and 4 in the afternoon.

Sweeny, returning to competitive golf after an operation for ulcers, met Ronald Palmer this morning in the fourth round. If he wins he faces a fifth round match this afternoon.

Brady, a friendly red-haired boy with a powerful drive, was scheduled to play Joe Taylor of England.

Davies, another hard hitter who seems well suited to his long 6,032-yard course, was matched against Peter Flaherty of England.

Joe Carr of Ireland, the strong favorite to win the title for the fourth time in 10 years, faced a match against B. G. H. Chapman, an English player with a good reputation.

Waterloo '9' Wins, 7 to 2, At Dubuque

Waterloo cut Dubuque's Midwest League lead to 1 1/2 games Wednesday night with a 7-2 victory over the Packers in Dubuque.

Barry Shollenberger gave up just five hits in notching the mound decision.

Clinton edged Quincy, 2-1. Kenkuk beat Quad-Cities, 3-0, and Decatur overpowered Burlington, 10-4, in other action.

Chew of Tobacco Saves Batter From Injury

TORONTO (AP) — Don Lock, outfielder with Richmond of the International League, was hit in the face by a pitched ball Tuesday night but escaped injury because of a mammoth cud of chewing tobacco.

When Lock came to the plate to bat against pitcher Steve Rid, he was hit in the sixth inning, he parked at Athens, Ohio.

Finstewald told newsmen he was leaving Pittsburgh immediately by plane for Ohio.

raised his league-leading average to .353. Ed Rakow got the pitching victory with solid relief from Gordon Jones, a bullpen ace for the A's since his recent recall from the minors.

Inventor of Nozzle Lip Gets Patent

As inventor of a "nozzle blade lip," Willard C. Notbohm, Appleton, recently received a U.S. patent.

His nozzle blade lip is used in the manufacture of paper. After the liquid pulp stock flows from a head box it must pass through a nozzle, and then onto the four-drainer wire on which the pulp receives treatments for the finished paper product. The nozzle must regulate the stream of pulp so it is a sheet of uniform thickness upon the wire.

Notbohm's nozzle overcomes a defect in the stream with a special lip attached to the nozzle blade.

Valley Iron Works Co. has been assigned the patent.

New Building Being Erected On College Ave.

A new two-story, ten-office building is being constructed at 1003 W. College Ave. by Alfred Thompson.

Thompson estimated the cost of the 48-by-80-foot structure at $75,000. The outside facing of the building is brick.

Thompson expects construction to be completed by the end of July. Contractors are James and Paul Gresl.

Board Says Woman Is Real Estate Broker

A check with the Wisconsin Real Estate Brokers' Board, Milwaukee, indicates Ione M. Hauman, doing business as United Real Estate Exchange, 715 E. Franklin St., Appleton, is in fact a real estate broker.

A recent story in the Post-Crescent stated that Mrs. Ione K. Hauman, 715 E. Franklin St., had married George L. Schuster, 1045 Franklin St., Appleton, is in fact a real estate broker.

Mrs. Schuster has objected to a sentence in the story which read "Mrs. Schuster says she is a real estate broker."
